FEBRUARY VACATION CAMP WINTER OLYMPIC CELEBRATION G.E. JACK SCHOOL • OPEN TO GRADES K-8

Join Standish Recreation during February vacation to celebrate winter in Maine. This year we will be celebrating the Winter Olympics in our own unique style. Kids will be divided into teams and compete at outdoor activities such as capture the flag, treasure hunts, ice fishing and more. This year we are also adding an "Open Gym" opportunity for parents looking for a couple of hours of gym time per day for their energetic children. Open gym will take place every morning from 9 to 11:30am.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16th

Trip to Windham Theater or Cinemagic in Westbrook

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17th

Roller-skating at Happy Wheels*

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18th

Johnson Field & Otter Ponds Activities

- * For any participant who wants to rent rollerblades instead of roller skates, the child must bring an additional $3.00 with him/her on the day of the trip. Children can bring their own skates or blades, but they have to be rink approved.
- * Children should pack bag lunches and drinks for all three days.
- * In the event that the program is to be canceled due to weather, there will be a message left on the Recreation Department Voicemail (642-2875) by 7:00 a.m. indicating this.

AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAM CHANGE

Starting February 1st, the after school program will be including a one hour academic block. This will be optional for children and free with participation in the after school program, but parents must be the ones to sign their child up. Parents will need to either provide the specifics of what they want their child to get assistance with, or bridge the communication channel between the after school program and their child's teacher(s).

The concept of this program is to provide a program that is individually tailored to enhance your student's educational, social and cognitive skills. If you have any questions contact the after school program director at 642-2298 or by email at fishteach@roadrunner.com.

Girls Softball Registration will be held on 2/25 and 2/26 from 6pm to 8pm in the cafeteria at George E. Jack Elementary School. If you have questions please see the Standish Softball website.
